Report of the Secretary-General

1. The General Assembly, by its resolution 39/46 of 10 December 1984, adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, and called upon all Governments to consider signing and ratifying the Convention as a matter or priority.

2. The Convention was opened for signature in New York on 4 February 1985. 3. By its resolution 1991/35 of 5 March 1991, the Commission on Human Rights urged all States to become parties to the Convention as a matter of priority; invited all States ratifying or acceding to the Convention and those States parties which had not yet done so to consider the possibility of making the declarations provided for in articles 21 and 22 of the Convention; and requested the Secretary-General to continue submitting to the General Assembly and to the Commission on Human Rights annual reports on the Status of the Convention.

4. As at 10 December 1991, the Convention had been ratified or acceded to by 64 States. In addition, 15 States had signed the Convention. The list of
